Norfolk, Va., July 26.—Norfolk turned the tables on Richmond to-day and took the last game of the series, 2 to 1. Johnson was pitted against Pool, and neither flinger had much on the other. Both gave up eight hits, and at all times were as cold as a block of cucumbers.
The Tars scored in the fourth inning, when Johnson was caught for three singles. Another tally came in the sixth, when Curtis walked and registered when Edwards dropped Pool's long fly to the right garden.
McCabe got in a pinch with Pender and was benched. Owner Bradley came Philadelpha Star May Not Be Able to Play Again This Season.

St. Louis, July 26.—Charles Doolin, catcher and manager of the Philadelphia National League baseball team, is in a hospital here with a broken right leg, as the result of a collision at the home plate in to-day's game with St. Louis. Physicians to-night announced that he hardly will be able to play again this season.
In the presence of the manager's downcast teammates to-night an X-ray photograph of the fracture, which is of the right fibula and about four inches above the ankle, was taken. The bone is broken in two.
The accident occurred in the fourth inning, while St. Louis was at bat, and was witnessed by 10,000 or more persons. Third Baseman Smith just been thrown out at the plate on an infield hit. Centre Fielder Oakes was on third base and Pitcher Geyer on first. They made a double steal, and as Shortstop Doolin, of Philadelphia, returned the ball to Catcher Doolin, Oakes slid into the plate, striking Doolin with great force. While Umpire O'Day was waving the runner out, Doolin dropped on his face. Players of both teams hurriedly carried the manager to a taxi cab, which took him to a hospital.
Shortstop Mitchell Doolin will act as manager while Doolin is absent, and Moran and Madden will alternate behind the bat.
This is the third star the Philadelphia team has lost this season in games with St. Louis, and the players to-night said Doolin's injury, more than anything else perhaps, might spoil their chances for the pennant.
Transferred to Hampton.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Newport News, Va., July 26.—All arrangements for the transferring of the Norfolk team, of the Tidewater League, to Hampton were completed to-day, and the Norfolk team will hereafter be known as the Hampton Crabbers. The Crabbers play the Shipbuilders here to-morrow.

S.S.S. PERMANENTLY HEALS SORES AND ULCERS

No matter in what way an old sore or ulcer first commenced, whether from a wound, cut, or bruise, or from the ulceration of a wart, pimple or mole, or even if it came without apparent reason, the fact that it does not heal shows that bad blood is responsible for the place. While the circulation remains impure the nerves and tissues of the flesh around the place are constantly being fed with unhealthy matter and the fibres are thus prevented from knitting together and healing. Purify the blood and the place MUST heal, its cause having been removed. S.S.S. cures old sores and chronic ulcers because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It removes from the circulation every impurity, and so enriches the blood that it nourishes the tender, sensitive flesh, and causes a knitting together of all fibrous tissue and thus heals the place. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free. S.S.S. is for sale at drug stores.

BIGGS CONTINUE WINNING STREAK

In Beautiful Ten-Inning Game Defeat Petersburg

Danville, Va., July 26.—Misplays at critical stages enabled the Red Sox to make it three straight from Bush's Penautters this afternoon, in one of the most closely played and exciting games of the season, in a ten-inning contest, 5 to 4, in which some brilliant hitting figured.
It was Bruckmiller against Perryman. The former twirled a good game, but just owing to errors at critical periods. Perryman pitched great ball until toward the last, when he weakened a bit, but was saved by fast fielding.
Neither team scored until the fourth, when Morgan doubled and Kaufman made the circuit on a bunt, which was thrown into the air. In the next inning Petersburg tied the score on a base on balls, triple and a hit. In the fifth Cooper sent the sphere over left center field fence. Perryman walked, caught between first and second; Morgan walked; stole second and third. And scored on a close decision when Bruckmiller reached first on a sacrifice. In the sixth Petersburg added another, when Spencer secured a home run.
In the ninth Petersburg tied the score on a double and long fly. Pandemonium, however, broke loose in the tenth, when Morgan singled, was sacrificed by Kaufman, and after several attempts Schrader doubled, scoring Morgan and the game, which set the fans wild with delight.
Kaufman and McCarthy made brilliant running catches from the top of the fence, cutting off at least two runs. The fans have taken refuge on the bleachers since the Sox have begun to ascend and the crowds are attending the game. This afternoon makes eight of the last nine games played won by the Sox.

Philadelphia Americans Win From Cleveland by Score of 6 to 5.
Philadelphia, Pa., July 26.—Philadelphia won from Cleveland to-day 6 to 5, largely through James' wildness in the first inning, when three bases on balls, an error and Barry's two-bagger scored four runs. Fisher, of Cleveland, had his right hand injured by a foul tip and was forced to leave the game.
